Submissions

Submissions are invited in every area of the studies on the transmission of philosophical and scientific texts from Classical Antiquity to the Middle Ages, Renaissance, and early modern times. Papers in English, French, German, Italian, and Spanish are published. Prospective authors are invited to check the Guidelines on the website of the journal, and to address their proposals to the Editor in Chief.

Peer Review Criteria

Studia graeco-arabica follows a double-blind peer review process. Authors should avoid putting their names in headers or footers or refer to themselves in the body or notes of the article; the title and abstract alone should appear on the first page of the submitted article. All submitted articles are read by the editorial staff. Manuscripts judged to be of potential interest to our readership are sent for formal review to at least one reviewer. Studia graeco-arabica does not release referees' identities to authors or to other reviewers. The journal is committed to rapid editorial decisions.

In 2011 Studia graeco-arabica was established as a sort of excavation report of the ERC project “Greek into Arabic. Philosophical Concepts and Linguistic Bridges” (2010-2015). The growing number of scholarly contributions suggested the need to continue publishing the journal even after the end of the project. It was also a wonderful opportunity for us to celebrate ten years of the journal with a festive volume in honor of one of the pillars of “Greek into Arabic”, Rüdiger Arnzen. When Gerhard Endress launched the idea and Yury Arzhanov offered to act as Guest Editor, the Editorial Board and its Staff thought that there could hardly be a better way to mark a significant step in the life of our community. Our heartfelt thanks go to Elisa Coda, to Henri Hugonnard-Roche, to Concetta Luna and to Issam Marjani for the invaluable contribution they provided to this volume and to the journal as a whole.
